HAT WEARING

Custom in the House of Commons is under Fire Because of Incident.

LONDON, Eng., Aug. 23.—The question of the etiquette of the hat in the House of Commons has again been raised by Commoner King wearing his hat in the Distinguished Strangers gallery.

Unfortunately, before the speaker could rule on the question which was raised, Mr. King disappeared from the gallery and the affair was dropped, but old members of the house insist that Mr. King was well within his rights. A member of Parliament is privileged to wear his hat anywhere within the chamber, provided only that he is seated. But if he rises from his seat or moves from his position he must uncover during the process. If a division has been called and a member wishes to raise a point of order he can do so only if he is wearing a hat.

In strict parliamentary etiquette a member should always raise his hat when he is referred to by the speaker.

New Floral and Machinery Halls have been added to the Central West Virginia Fair, the annual meeting of which is to be held September 1, 2, 3 and 4 at Clarksburg.
